The Daily Republican.
PUBLISHED BY J. A. MOSEB, Proprietor.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.
TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 22, 1886.
The Rev. Dr. Sunderland, of Washington, has sent a newspaper for publishing a picture of him that he says resembled Guiteau, and a young woman named Lillie Mitchell has sent a St. Paul paper for printing an alleged likeness of her that looked like Lydia Pinkham.

The enthusiasm with which Philadelphia Democratic newspapers support a Pennsylvania Prohibition movement has a suggestion in it as broad as the barn-doors of the Pennsylvania agricultural. The Democratic feels toward the Prohibitionist as the panther feels toward the wolf; it may pull down an occasional deer for the panther's consumption.

At a public dinner in Boston Governor Hill, of New York, commended President Cleveland in words that were more significant for their earnest selection than for their warmth, and made a strong bid for his own nomination as Mr. Cleveland's successor by saying: "I am utterly opposed to any policy or scheme which prevents any administration from recognizing faithful party service in the distribution of the important offices of the Government." This sentiment was vociferously applauded by the politicians present.

The Chicago Times has been pretty good Democratic authority in times past, and should be so accepted now. No one should for a moment question the declaration of that paper, in a recent issue, when, speaking of the division of the Democrats in Congress on the tariff question, it says "that that which goes by the name of Democratic party is not a political party, but a ring of place-hunters and popular credulity—another name for political profligacy." That's a fact, and now, Mr. Times, don't you forget it.

Mr. HENRY of California introduced in the House yesterday a resolution setting forth that as certain officers of the Union Pacific Railroad Company had issued bonds without the consent of Congress, paid dividends in the face of a large floating debt, and guaranteed interest on over $13,000,000 of Oregon Short Line bonds, all in defiance of law, therefore the Attorney General is directed to institute civil and criminal proceedings against them where sufficient evidence to warrant judgment or conviction.

A Democratic Howl.
Brooklyn Eagle: The Democratic party finds the civil service rules making the Democratic administration a Republican enterprise company; it finds the President after sixteen months in office surrounded by a civil service, of which four-fifths are Republicans and partisans; it finds the Republican rule so administered as to require Democratic officials to select Republicans and bar Democrats, thus the equal competency of the latter be assured.

Good fitting and strongly and neatly made clothing, less than most, in the city, at the "F. O. & Co. Clothing Store."

THROAT-AIL seldom goes well of itself, but deepens until it is fatal. It weakens the voice, makes a weak throat, and finally takes itself out of the throat, leaving the neck and ruin of the whole man. Dr. Hagedorn's Positive Cure is the only cure and it is ready for the throat, colds and lung disease. Sold by Dr. A. J. Hagedorn at fifty cents and one dollar. Pleasant to take and safe for children.

To Whom It May Concern,
GEOGRAPHICAL, ILL., June 18, 1886.
This is to certify that I am well acquainted with Mr. Naomi Thayer, now located for the practice of her profession at Decatur, Ill. From my intimate knowledge of her I consider her excellently well qualified to successfully practice her profession. Her moral character is of the best. I heartily recommend her to the profession of Decatur.

Very respectfully,
W. O. SKINNER.

BY TELEGRAPH FROM WASHINGTON.
The President Sends in Another Batch of Vetoes, with His Reasons.
The Tariff Reformers in Caucus—Mr. Morrison Advised to Go Slow—The Blair Pension Bill.
More Oleomargarine—The Pan-Electric Investigation—Three Per Cent. Bonds Called, Etc., Etc.

A Batch of Vetoes and the Reasons for Them.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President yesterday sent to Congress fifteen veto messages. Of these, six were addressed to the Senate and nine to the House. All but two of the vetoes referred to pensions. The two exceptions were bills providing for the erection of public buildings at Zanesville, O., and Sioux City, Ia. In his message vetoing the bill granting a pension to Elizabeth S. De Croft, the President says that a large number of pension bills have never been submitted to a majority of either branch of Congress, but are the result of nominal sessions held for the express purpose of their consideration and attempt to secure a majority of members of the respective houses of the legislative branch of the government. This, while the President has deemed it his duty to disapprove many of the bills presented, he has not regarded his action as a desert, from the conclusions of the people's representatives.

In the President's message, vetoing the Senate bill to provide for the erection of a public building at Zanesville, O., the President says that no Federal courts are held at Zanesville, and there are no Government officers located there who should be provided for at the public expense, except the postmaster. So far as the President is informed, the patrons of the post-offices are fairly well accommodated in a building which is rented by the Government at the rate of $600 per annum. The President has no doubt, the Government can be well accommodated in connection with the public buildings, with the people of Zanesville by renting quarters at less expense than the annual tax maintaining the proposed new building after its completion.

In his message vetoing the bill for a public building at Sioux City, Iowa, the President finds upon examination that United States courts are sometimes held at that place, but that they have been thus far held in the County Court house without serious inconvenience and without any expense to the government. There are actually no Federal officers located there for whom the government, in the President's view, should provide accommodations, except the postmaster. The post-office is now located in a building owned by the government, and the day of January 1st, at the rate of $2,200 per annum. In the President's judgment the number of public buildings should not at this time be increased, and a greater public necessity exists for the bill than is apparent in the case of Sioux City.

The Tariff Reformers in Caucus.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—About one hundred of the Democratic members who voted on last Thursday to consider the Morrison tariff bill, met in conference in the hall of the House of Representatives at eight o'clock last night. Mr. Briggs, of Wisconsin, was chosen chairman. A resolution was offered by Mr. Briggs, to call for a vote on his bill in the House at any time, and as often as he deemed advisable to put emphasis upon the desirability of the tariff reformers to reform the tariff. This resolution was the basis for a full discussion of the prospects of tariff reform and the propriety of occupying further time in attempting it. Messrs. Morrison, Carlisle and Logan made the principal speeches of the evening, the first holding that a too frequent consideration of the bill could not be taken; the second arguing on the propriety of repeating and duplicating votes on the measure, for the purpose of emphasizing earnestness, and the latter opposing the consumption of further time by the bill. Many members expressed the belief that proper emphasis had already been given the position of those present on the subject of tariff reform.

At the close of an hour and a quarter, it became advisable to withdraw the resolution. The chairman was then instructed to appoint a member from each State that had a vote for a consideration of the Morrison bill to compose a conference committee, with instructions to report at the next meeting. It was, further action was delayed. Mr. Morrison was requested to make no move until a report is received from the conference committee and he will not ask the House to take up his bill today.

The Blair Pension Bill.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—The House committee on invalid pensions today agreed to amend the substitute for the Blair bill, pensioning disabled soldiers, with the bill to increase the rate of pension of soldiers who have lost a leg or arm, and attach to the combined bills a clause imposing an income tax to meet the expenditure involved. The clause is patterned after the Income Tax bill introduced in the Forty-seventh Congress by George F. Edmunds, collected at the time the bill was introduced in committee that an income of $33,000,000 per annum could be raised in this way. If the bill can be passed, it will be under the suspension of the rules, it is expected by the committee that it will prepare the way for favorable action on the bill to extend the date within which claims for arrears of pensions may be filed, as the necessary revenue to pay the claims will be available.

The Oleomargarine Bill.
WASHINGTON, June 11.—In all probability the Senate committee on agriculture will make a favorable report on the Oleomargarine bill this week. The Republican caucus committee will then decide upon the advisability of making the bill a part of the business. Senator Edmunds, the Republican leader, has expressed himself as in favor of the bill, but his sincerity is doubted. Senator Beck, the Democratic leader, is openly opposed to the bill. It is also believed that there is a majority of the Senate opposed to it. Under these circumstances it will be difficult to obtain consideration for it.

The Citizens of Decatur.
My instructions from Mr. Fred Norman when soliciting for Norman's Steam Laundry have always been under no condition to take any trade from anybody who was having his work done by women. Only wanted such as done in Chinese hands. Will also state that the laundry trade in this house has been gaining all the time and has the largest trade at present ever known.

JOHN W. ANDERSON.
Bookkeeper Norman's Steam Laundry. Subscribed and sworn to before me this June 12, 1886. G. P. HARDY, Clerk. I know the above statement to be true. W. H. LITTON, Notary Public for Decatur, Ill. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of June, A. D. 1886. jun14-dit G. P. HARDY, Clerk.

Blind People's Attention.
We have secured the exclusive sale of the celebrated Foreign White Ash Smoking Coal. It is no equal for anything purposes. Try it. jun14-dit Geo. W. EINHART.

The Pan Electric Investigation.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Pan-Electric committee will, this week, take up the report prepared by the chairman and Judge Ranney. The members of the committee are endeavoring to persuade Mr. Boyle to boil down his report which, as at present constituted, would make a small-sized volume. Mr. Boyle has been asked to make the report very brief, omitting the portions of testimony at present contained in it. At least one member of the committee is still in doubt whether to prepare an independent report or not.

Treasurer Ratified.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—In secret session yesterday afternoon the Senate ratifies the Japanese extradition and Mexican boundary treaties without opposition.
A Four-Million Call.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—A call for $4,000,000 three per cent. bonds will be issued this afternoon.

THE FORTY-NINTH CONGRESS.
(First Session.)
WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Chair laid before the Senate the credentials of Hon. N. W. Aldrich, re-elected as Senator from Rhode Island, which were read and accepted. Hon. J. M. McKim, of the World's Columbian Exposition Company, of Chicago, to attend its opening on July 3. Last of the table.

A HOLOCAUST.
Five Acres of Seething Flames with Great Loss of Human Life.
Burning of the Immense New England Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Institute at Boston.
Eight Dead Bodies Recovered and Sixteen Persons Missing—List of the Wounded.

Boston, June 21.—The immense New England Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Institute building, at the west end of Huntington Avenue, recently purchased by the Metropolitan Fire and Marine Insurance Company, and repaired shop, caught fire yesterday from the paint-shop, and when the flames reached the shop the oil and paint stored therein spread over a large space and proved a speedy carrier of the flames.

There were many men inside when the fire broke out, and all rushed for the rear windows. Most of them were helped out, but while a rush was being made to one of the windows, at which a scorching and burning fire was seen, two men fell back into the seething torrent and perished.

A colored man went back into the burning house to save property and was never seen to come out.
Chester L. Hazlett and K. L. Farrer could have escaped, but tried to pull out some cars and were tragically burned. The building was not in ruins. While the two thousand spectators were viewing the spectacle, a tragedy was being enacted within unknown to all but the firemen and the police. A fireman, who was standing near the entrance, saw a man fall back into the seething torrent and perished.

DEAD.
Patrick Lyons, blacksmith, aged twenty-six, who went back to get tools.
Alex. Campbell, aged thirty-five, a woodworker, the only support of an aged mother.
Oliver Frost, a woodworker.
Wm. Taylor, aged seventy.

WOUNDED.
John McDermott, a blacksmith, face burned.
James W. Hadden, head and face burned.
E. Perran, ditto.
Henry Shugart, and Jas. Hazlett, badly injured about the face and arms and head.

All of these are men who escaped, but went back after tools. It was not fifteen minutes after the fire broke out, and the roof doubled up like a jack-knife, taking in the walls with it. Everything is gone clear down into the cellar. Sixteen persons are missing.

Rescued the Child.
FALL RIVER, Mass., June 22.—At four o'clock this morning Mrs. Lester Neuge, of Dighton, jumped into the Taunton river with her two-year-old child in her arms. Ferdinand Walton jumped in and rescued the child, but the woman was beyond rescue and was drowned. Her body was recovered. She was temporarily deranged.

The Anarchist Parsons Surrenders and is Released.
CHICAGO, June 22.—During the trial of the Anarchists yesterday afternoon A. R. Parsons, the much-sought-for dynamiter, amazed everybody by marching into the courtroom beside Lawyer Black, chief counsel for the Anarchists. Captain Black introduced him to the court as one of the defendants in the case at bar, and asked that he be arraigned.

"Parsons," said Lawyer Black, "has not at any time been over a hundred miles from the city, yet all the two hundred officers looking for him would never have brought him forward before simply because the methods of the Chicago police are brutal and utterly above and beyond the pale of the law. I proposed to have my client treated legally and not bullied and tortured as prisoners are not even in Russia."

After the latter following his entrance was over, Parsons was formally arraigned, the prisoner pleading not guilty. He then took his seat and the examination of the jurors was proceeded with. Parsons was interviewed by dozens of reporters, while standing in the cage of the county jail, but all efforts to learn from him where he had been concealed during the past two months proved fruitless. Parsons was asked if he had been indoors all the time.

"Does that look like it?" asked the prosecutor, as he held out a hand browned with sun and with "I've been out doors fishing and gathering clover."
"He's been away from his summer vacation, as he held out a hand browned with sun and with 'I've been out doors fishing and gathering clover.'"
"I see you wear the Knights of Labor badge," said another interviewer. "Did the Knights of Labor help you in your concealment?"

Parsons did not offer any answer whatever to that question, but in response to other inquiries as to why he had returned to stand the examination of such a jury, he said he came back to share the fate of his fellows, and because he wanted to establish and uphold the truth and the rights of oppressed labor of the whole world.

Meeting of the Trades and Labor Assembly of Chicago.
CHICAGO, June 21.—At the meeting of the Trades and Labor Assembly yesterday the committee which has been working in conjunction with the citizens' committee in an endeavor to effect a permanent settlement of the strike at Cummings reported that repeated efforts had been made to induce the Calumet Iron Company to submit the questions at issue to arbitration, suitable material for the company, through General Manager Lewis, presented a proposition to the committee in which it consented to the return to work of certain of the strikers, who were named, but specified that all those now at work in the mill, including the "scabs," should be allowed to retain their present positions without any consideration of this proposition after being pretty severely condemned by the assembly, was referred back to the committee. It was decided to extend the boycott against the Calumet Company by labeling each keg of nails manufactured by it.

The committee on prison labor presented a report which gave rise to hours of discussion. The report suggested that steps be taken to secure the establishment of a penal colony of the United States Government for the confinement of all habitual criminals, and that all able-bodied male prisoners be employed during the summer in constructing public highways and in other projects, suitable material for the work. All other prisoners, it was suggested, should be employed in the manufacture by hand of wearing apparel and in the production of household goods, and products to be utilized as far as practicable in State institutions. The committee thought that all labor and other elements of civilization should be adapted to the ultimate reform of the prisoners. The report was referred.

A communication was received from the Federation of Trades Unions of the Pacific Coast, asking that a boycott be placed on the goods of the J. Lusk Canning Company. The reason given for the request was that on April 21st the Chinese help by white labor during the present season, but failed to keep its agreement. The communication was referred to the boycott committee.

TRIOBLE ON WEST MAIN STREET.

Sequel to the Horne Divorce Case—Criminal Proceedings before Justice Curtis.

A few days ago the divorce suit of Alice E. Horne vs. William E. Horne was dismissed in the circuit court by the complainant. Mrs. Horne alleged in her bill against her husband, adultery and cruelty. In reply the defendant filed a cross-bill, alleging impotency on her part. The demurrer to the cross-bill was sustained and the cross-bill was dismissed. Later the complainant's bill for a divorce was dismissed, and the family trouble was at an end so far as the court was concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. Horne have been married 10 years. They own a large frame dwelling at 554 West Main street, worth between $4,000 and $5,000. They have no children. Since the couple separated Mrs. Horne has retained possession of the dwelling and used rented rooms to different parties. During the temporary absence of his wife Mr. Horne visited his home this forenoon and while there became involved in a controversy with Edward P. Stivers, the muscular brother of Mrs. Horne. It ended by Stivers taking Mr. Horne in charge, throwing him down, taking a revolver from him and driving him down town. The revolver was given to W. G. Johns and will figure in the trials set for Thursday forenoon before Justice Curtis.

On reaching the office of the Justice Mr. Horne swore out a warrant for the arrest of Stivers on a charge of highway robbery in taking the revolver from him. Mr. Stivers had Mr. Horne arrested on a warrant to keep the peace and for carrying a concealed weapon and for flourishing a revolver.

The reporter sought Mr. Horne to secure from him a statement for publication. He had seen his attorneys and positively refused to talk about the case, saying that his side of the case would come out at the trial.

Mr. Stivers' story is that he was at his sister's home this forenoon, repairing some walks, when Mr. Horne came to the place and entered the house. Mrs. Horne and gone out riding with a friend. He was not connected in his statement. He says he had some words with Horne, the latter saying that his wife should never enter the house again. Warm words were exchanged, when Stivers states, that Horne made an attempt to draw a revolver on him. Then Stivers caught Horne by the arms and pulled him out of the house and into the street.

After the pair had gone a block, Horne made a desperate struggle to free himself from the grasp of the giant, whereupon Stivers overpowered Horne, and forcing him to take the 32-calibre loaded revolver from his hip pocket. Then Horne was brought on down into the city.

The foregoing is as full a statement as the reporter could secure. It is an unfortunate family affair, and both Mr. and Mrs. Horne have their friends who will side with them in the present difficulties. Mrs. Horne is at present in possession of the family home.

The trials will be held before Curtis Thursday forenoon. The Big Celebration. Mayor Kanan and the committees for the big celebration in Decatur on July 5th met last night at the St. Nicholas hotel. The reports indicated that the people generally are enthusiastic for the proposed old-fashioned demonstration, and that it will be a boomer for the city.

They will wait Griggsville and other points before returning to the city. Ex-Ald. T. T. Roberts and Miss Anna Jack, for many years a teacher in the public schools, will be united in marriage at the city hall at 7:45 o'clock to-morrow. The bride is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Joseph Jack, parson of the bride, on West Prairie street.

Abel Angle, of Indianapolis, who was one of the first conductors on the I. & M. road, was in the city yesterday to call on his old friend, Horace Morgan. They are old chums and have long been punching tickets on the railway. Abel had heard that Horne was injured by a fall and he came over to see him.

Base Ball Chaps. Manager Morgan has postponed the proposed game between the Deatur White Stockings and the Springfield Reds until next Monday afternoon, the 28th.

The Deatur club will be fully manned by Saturday night. The new men will be Allen McClellan, of Greenfield, Ind., third baseman and pitcher, and his catcher; Ed. J. Flynn, of Chicago, catcher and all round player; Jim McDonald, of Buffalo, all round player; Herb Johnson, of Allegheny, Pa., catcher, and two or three others with whom Mr. Morgan is in correspondence. The nine will be stronger than ever. Burns, Reising and Smith remain. Ingraham left last night for Oklahoma.

Wants in right field the other day at the Park, Manager Morgan made a grand rush to catch a fly from Ingraham's bat. He got to the ball just in time to let it come in contact with one of his little fingers, and it brought the claret. The finger nail is now ready to drop off, and Morgan has registered a vow high on the back stop board, that he will never, never again try to catch a fly.

A Renter Has a Word to Say. Eos, HARBESLOAN—A short time ago some property owner declared the slaughterhouse, south of the city, a nuisance, and now Mr. Baker says another one is spoken of. But "by nobody more than renters," who, as he says, may move out, if they don't like it. He says he has a right to keep a house from Spain, but he says it would rather have him keep it in Spain or some other remote place. It is true, that we, who rent and work hard to pay our rent, are obliged many times over to be good and put up with things we don't like, for we are often too ignorant to write a place for the newspaper, and too poor to hire any one to compose anything for us. So, if anything annoys us, we get too impatient from property owners who read the papers. But I would just say that we renters, as a class, do know when we are imposed upon, and we are not too stupid to mean to pay for music when we want it; neither will we accept of free matinees, though they may be given by the jack from Spain. My father, aged 85, was a farmer and a few days schooling. But my teacher owned a little house and lot, and felt quite independent, not wanting to work out his master. He gave me no explanations. So he often sent me to the dictionary to find the definition to my spelling lesson, and among other words right was the word nuisance. Now, if I remember right, we have a right to complain of it. And don't you think it would be better to move your ass farther away than have a whole community move and leave property owners in many empty houses on their hands? I am sure you don't want to be left alone. Only think how lonely you would be, for we would take our children with us and we would be the same from Spain? A RENTER.

The Council in Session.

A called meeting of the city council was held last night to pass judgment on the improvement of North Park street, and to attend to other matters. Mayor Kanan and all aldermen were present. City Engineer Loring reported that Park street contained 1189.01 square yards of brick pavement, and the public improvement committee reported that the work had been done in compliance with the ordinance and according to the contract. The report was adopted, and a warrant was drawn in favor of F. H. Hunt, the contractor, for $381.62, the city's share of the expense. The petition for a cobblestone gutter on both sides of Water St., from Wood street to Priest, was referred, as was also the claim of Thomas Connor for $730.35, and the resolution for a culvert near the Kinney addition, at the end of West Main street.

A Horror at Lovington. A barn, a farmer living three miles south-east of Lovington, was set on fire by his four-year-old son yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock, and his little two-year-old son perished in the flames. The children went to the barn to play with matches. After the building tumbled down, the limbless trunk of the little fellow was found beyond recognition.

Nearly Located. The publishers of the Herald have taken possession of their new office in the W. J. Chenoweth building at the corner of North Main and William streets, and are now at home to callers. They have counting and consultation rooms, good stock tile floor and cherry furniture, good stock room; a composing room with plenty of light, and a spacious room where the new 10-horse power steam engine, boiler and press are placed. Hall & Hostetler now have an abundance of elbow room, and have good cause to jubilate on their escape from the old sweat box.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Etta Campbell has gone to the country for a few days. Col. Phoebe Howard will be the orator at the July 4th celebration at Mt. Pleasant. Miss Mary Lloyd will not teach in the public schools the coming year.

W. H. Starr is better to-day. The fever has left him, and he is resting comfortably. Charles A. Turner and son of Macon, and P. E. Burke, of Champaign, were at the St. Nicholas to-day.

Rev. A. C. Scott left to-day for Latham to attend a U. E. church meeting. He will be absent until Friday. Miss Mary Lloyd will leave to-morrow for Louisville and other points in Kentucky, to be absent several months.

Ike Ingraham, the old back-stop for the White Stockings, has gone to Oklahoma to play with a club in the Northwestern League. A. D. Wilson, who has been on duty at Morehouse, Wells & Co.'s wholesale house, has resigned to go to St. Louis. He was the stenographer and type-writer.

Daniel Robertson, who has resigned his position as manager of the Deatur wagon factory, on account of failing health, goes to Missouri with his family. Mrs. Gladwell and her grand-daughter, Miss Lizzie Knieser, will depart Thursday for Hannibal, Mo., to be absent until fall. They will visit Griggsville and other points before returning to the city.

Ex-Ald. T. T. Roberts and Miss Anna Jack, for many years a teacher in the public schools, will be united in marriage at the city hall at 7:45 o'clock to-morrow. The bride is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Joseph Jack, parson of the bride, on West Prairie street.

COMMON LAW DOCKET. The People of the State of Illinois ex rel. C. M. Caldwell et al vs. Board of Supervisors of Macon County et al; petition: trial by court. The finding was against the county board, and the court ordered that a peremptory writ of mandamus be issued, requiring the county to pay half the expense growing out of the construction of the new bridge at the Wynton Ford.

ON TRIAL. People vs. Charles Staines; burglary and grand larceny under indictment for stealing a carpet from a barn of Charles A. Ewing; trial by jury. Judge Nelson and J. A. Buchanan appear for the defendant, and State's Attorney "all for the prosecution. The jury men are W. G. Burley, Adam Frederick, E. R. Stewart, Milton Clark, Thomas Bullock, E. J. McMillan, Henry Smock, O. C. Ford, James Moore, Fred Kater, Sol Stine and Wesley Johnson.

The Commissioners Victorious. Judge Hughes, in the circuit court yesterday, decided the Wynton $6,700 bridge case in favor of the contending highway commissioners, O. M. Caldwell and D. A. Moffitt, and he ordered that a writ be issued at once to compel the county, through the board of supervisors, to pay its half of the expense of building the bridge. The board had originally agreed to pay only $2,000, but the commissioners went ahead and built a splendid bridge, and they have again got a legal decision in their favor. They have all along held that, under the statutory law, the county should pay one-half of the total sum. The interests of the township and Commissioners Caldwell and Moffitt were guarded by W. C. Johns, and E. P. Vail.
